What one thing could you do, (that you are not doing now) that if you did on a regular basis, would make a tremendous positive difference in your professional or personal life?

1. ____________________________________________________________

Create a plan for putting into your life the one activity which will make a tremendous positive difference in your life.

- Make it do-able.
- Make it measurable.
- Make it happen!

2. ____________________________________________________________

Possible Results:

3. ____________________________________________________________